A streamer holds the Razer Audio Mixer in his hands and talks about it.

Dialogue: I'm fairly convinced this product will take the market by storm for exactly how easy it is to set it up.

Text appears: Easy to setup.

Dialogue: The sliders are very reactive and insanely accurate.

We cut to a split-screen that shows software on the left and the audio mixer on the right. As the audio mixer's faders are adjusted, we see the software reflecting those changes accordingly.

Dialogue: With the slider you can manually raise Windows volume to the max and then control everything with the mixer.

Text appears: Control everything.

Shoot zooms in closer to highlight the Razer Audio Mixer's buttons and faders, which are backlit to ensure they are visible in dark settings.

Dialogue: The effects category has a main focus, the voice changer built-in feature.
